2009 Tax Year IRA Contributions

Please note: The deadline for 2008 IRA contributions is April 15, 2009.

In order to qualify as a 2008 IRA contribution, the following criteria must be met:

- Contributions must be received on or before April 15, 2009.
- If funds are delivered via US postal service, the envelope must have a postmark of April 15, 2009 or before.
- For firms that utilize sweep accounts owned by a Genworth Financial company, funds must be deposited on or before April 15, 2009.
- For firms that transfer funds via wire or ACH, funds must be deposited to a Genworth Financial company's account on or before April 15, 2009.

If we receive an IRA contribution and it qualifies as a 2008 contribution but the contribution year has not been specified, the contribution is not "in good order." We will call the agent, administrative office, or customer to determine what the customer intended regarding the contribution year and we will accept clarification by phone, fax, or email. If we cannot obtain clarification, we will process the IRA contribution as a 2009 contribution.

For additional information regarding IRA contributions, please review IRS Publication 590 at www.irs.gov. You can obtain a hard copy of the IRS Publication 590 by contacting the Internal Revenue Service directly at 800 829.1040.
