COMPANY-OWNED LIFE INSURANCE-NOTICE AND CONSENT

The Pension Protection Act of 2006 added company owned life insurance provisions that have a significant impact on any business that is owner and beneficiary of life insurance on an employee. IRC Sec 101 was amended by adding subsection (j). This new rule provides that the death proceeds will be income except to the extent of premiums and other amounts paid by the employer for the contract. The provisions are generally effective for policies issued after August 17, 2006. There are exceptions to the income inclusion rule if the notice and consent requirements are met.
